

Child Development 2 Test Study Guide

Unit 7 Chapter 20 Encouraging Children's Play Experiences

A. Know the following vocabulary words for the test:

1. Active-physical play, Manipulative-constructive play, Imitative-imaginative play, .Play therapy,.Language-logic play, Visual literacy, Unit blocks, Sand tables, Water tables, Visual arts
2. Know which domains play mainly benefits.
3. Know which theorist saw play as having intellectual benefits.
4. Know what kind of play involves playing with small blocks.
5. Know what kind of play children learn about spatial concepts.
6. Know which type of play improves a child's memory.
7. Know what age of children enjoy language-logic play.
8. Know what activity promotes visual literacy.
9. Know what sand play promotes through holistic learning.
10. Know what type of activity water play is considered.
11. Know what activity helps children learn self-regulation.
12. Know what kind of art young children normally produce.
13. Know what science experiments promote in young children.
14. Know how young children learn print knowledge.
15. Know what stages of play can be seen with.
16. Know what is not a type of play classified by the basic skills involved.
17. Know what active-physical play aids and what it does not affect.
18. Know what type of play playing with small blocks is classified as.
19. Know what children express through imitative-imaginative play.
20. Know what major roles adults play in children's play.
21. Know what type of art children in the representation stage of visual art produce.
22. Know what musical experiences start with for children.
23. Know what skills singing aids.
24. Know what books for older children normally have more of.
25. Name and describe the four types of play.
26. Describe the stages of imitative-imaginative play.

27. Know how adults can encourage play in children