Child Development Unit 5 Chapters 5 and 6
Study Guide Pregnancy and Special Circumstances in Pregnancy

1.Know the definition of the following vocabulary words: Fallopian tubes, Fetus, Placenta, Embryo. Germinal Stage, Cervix, Quickening, Amnion, Fetal Stage, Embryonic Stage, Age of Viability, Uterus, Folic Acid, Genetic Disorder, Chorionic Villus Sampling, Rubella, Dominant Traits, Ultrasound, Artificial Insemination, Miscarriage, In vitro Fertilization, Fertility Counseling, Stillbirth, Surrogate Mother, Gamete Intrafallopian Transfer

2. Know the 2 types of human body cells.
3. Know when a woman makes her eggs.
4. Know what the fallopian tubes are and where they attach to.
5. Know what the cell division in the zygote forms.
6. Know what the genetic blueprint is called that guides cell growth and development.
7. Know which trimester most miscarriages occur.
8. Know which activities are important for a woman to do during pregnancy.

9. Know when the first stage of prenatal development begins and what it is called.

10. Know which stage most of the unborn baby's body systems begin to develop.

11.Know which stage diseases and drugs are most dangerous to the unborn baby.

12. Know when the fetal stage begins and what happens in this stage.

13. Know what happens in the ninth month of pregnancy.

14. Know why people can pass on traits that are not expressed in them.

15. Know the environmental factors that can affect the unborn baby.

16. Know what the effects of stress in the mother have on the unborn baby.

17. Know what kind of sign the HCG hormone is considered.

18. Know the complications of pregnancy.

19. Know how long pregnant women feel tired during pregnancy.

20. Know the three stages of prenatal development and explain each one.

21. Know 4 presumptive and 4 positive signs of pregnancy.

22. Know and describe three methods used to help couples overcome problems with conceiving.

23. Know the 3 different types of multiple pregnancies.

24. Know the 3 types of pregnancy complications.